ASSOCIATION SECURITY DEPOSIT DISCLOSURE

UNIT #: _____

Requirement

An owner who wishes to lease their unit pursuant to the Plaza Del Prado Condominium Association lease policies and by-laws, requires a security deposit with the Association. The Security Deposit with the Association must be maintained for as long as the Owner intends to lease the unit. The Security Deposit with the Association is not to be confused with the Landlord’s security deposit for the leased unit itself. The current policy of the Condominium Association requires that the Association Security Deposit must come from the owner. However, the prospective tenant (Applicant) is required to place the same deposit with the Landlord, in addition to the unit security deposit.

Intent

The intent of holding a security deposit with the Condominium Association is to claim the amount held in part or whole, if the tenant causes any damage to the common elements of the building in the process of moving in or out of the unit, or anytime during the duration of the lease. The Association may also claim appropriate amount from the Security Deposit to pay for any pending fine from unsettled or active violations. The Tenant is also responsible for any such damages or violations committed by their visiting guests or hired vendor / personal service. The Landlord is ultimately responsible for all Association’s financial claims against the tenant, and since the Landlord has placed the Security Deposit with the Association, the Landlord must hold on to the additional and equivalent portion of the Security Deposit received from the Tenant. Upon expiration or termination of the Lease, the Landlord may not release the said portion of the Security Deposit, without getting a written clearance from the Condominium Association / Management. The Landlord has 30 Days after the Tenant vacates the unit to notify of intended claim on the Security Deposit. If the Condominium Association does not intend to make any damage claims, the Landlord will be notified to release the Association part of the security deposit back to the Tenant immediately and within 15 days of vacating. The Landlord is responsible for inspecting the unit at the time of tenant vacating or soon after to determine if a claim on the Unit Security Deposit is intended.

Association Security Deposit withholding

The Condominium Association holds all security deposits in a non-interest-bearing account (Escrow Account) in the State of Florida.

Refunds

A record of initial issuance of the Security Deposit Check is maintained with the Condominium Association. A refund check will only be processed in the name of the original issuer of the check. A proof of security deposit payment may be requested from the claimant.

I/We have read, understood and received a copy of this disclosure.

Dated this _____ of _____, 20____.
